Moseley had just selzed some liquor coming in on a late train. He was accompanied by a trial justice's constable and had a warrant.

While storing the whisky in the depot, a negro selzed a jug and ran. Moseley fired two shots at him and just then was shot dead from behind.

Four negroes have been arrested and are guarded in the guardhouse. There are threats of lynching and the local militia has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to respond to the orders of the mayor.

Moseley has selzed a great quantity of liquor, but was conside the pread proponents of the law one of the least objectionable of the constables. He was very well connected.

Tells How Prince Lobanoff Lauded the Kaiser's Father.

THE PRINCE GOES TO BERLIN

mperor William Will Not at Once Declare War Agninst Russia, However, But Will Soon Start on His Tour of the Reichsland-Stern the Victim of an Old Grudge

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The visit of Prince Lo-banoff-Rostovsky, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, who arrived here last night from Paris after finishing his holidays in France, is regarded in official circles as having no significance beyond that of an act of friendly couriesy in return for the recent visit of Prince Hohenlohe to St. Pe-tersburg.

Prince Lobanoff was received by the Emperor to-day at Hubertusstock, and according to the present rerangements will return to St. Petersburg to-morrow. Count Ostensacken, the Russian ambassador to Germany, has sbortened his leave of absence, spent in Switzerland, and returned here in order to meet Prince Lobanoff.

The fact that he bastened his return to Berlin in order to be here while his immediate superior was in the city, has been construed by a few as signifying that diplomatic matters of importance were to be discussed, but generally it is known as merely an observance of diplomatic amenities.

Ites.

In the meantime public and official curiosity attaches to the Kaiser's reception of the Russian foreign unitater, after having read the report of an interview which Frince Lobanoif accorded to M. Howitz, the Paris correspondent of the London Times, while the former was in Paris, which has been reproduced in the newspapers here, as is doubtless well known.

BLOWITZ SAID IT.

BLOWITZ SAID IT.

In this interview, the Emperor, whose morning reports from the various departments and his secretaries, include most of the matter paths and meeting in the terminal pormais reterring to himself, is reterred to frequently and compared uniavorably with his tainer. Prince Lobanon is represented as saying: "The young Kaiser likes to fly with his own wings. He consults Prince Hohenlohe because the chancellor is wise and aniable of temper." Commaning, Prince Lobanon's aous: "I have recently seen how Prince Hohenlohe has occupied his post. He does not do so as an aniabnous man, but merely with patriotic resignation."

Nothing beyond the bare mention of Prince Lobanoff's andience with the Kaiser and his consequent dimer with Prince Hohenlohe will reach the public umit the incidents slowly precolate through diplomatic channels, the invariable needing of such communications. BLOWITZ SAID IT.

The Eniperor will leave Hubertosstock with regret. He has had vastly finer sport than he nad at Romanten. Deer and other big game have been plentaril and the weathernas been cooler and more chyoyable.

Herr Friese, the ammal panetr, has been a member of his sinte aum has made some splendid sketches of the more notable of the Raiser's gim. He has also sketched groups of participants in the imperial minitin which the Emperor has devoted a considerable part of each day to business, keeping several couriers employed in journeying between Berimand-Hubertsstock. Hispartialbonday will end when he starts for his tour of the Reichsland, which he will do on October 18.

After the ceremonies of unveiling the monument to the Emperor's lather, Kaiser Frederick III., at worth, the next great imperial function will be the inauguration of the new Rechisgerichtshef at Leipsic. On this occasion the Emperor and the King of Saxony will arrive at Leipsic at noon on October 26. They will be received at the railway station and a grand procession military and civic, will escort them to the great cupoin had of the hew edifice, similar to that of the new Reichstag building, where the Emperor will formally lay the capstone of the building. Dr. Von Boetticher, the vice president of the imperial councin, the president of the Reichstag, representatives of the various federal states and the chief of the imperial departments will be present.

After the ceremonies the Emperor and the King of Saxony will take tuncheon with the president of the supreme tribunal, and in the evening will leave Leipsic respectively for Berain and Dresden.

AN OLD GRUDGE.

In the course of inquiries provoked by aliasions in the Munich newspapers to the real reasons why the Bavarian government ignored the diplomatic influence of the limited States in benalt of Mr. Louis Stern. of New York, the revocation of whose sentence of fine and imprisonment for insulting Baron You Thinesign, the deputy commissioner at the Spa at Kissingen, was sought, the representative of the United Press found that the difficulty was traceable to the period when Mr. Bancroft was United States Minister to Prossia, and was at the same time accredited to the Bavarianani Wartemburgeourts, respectively at Munich and Stuttgart.

In 1871, when the German Empire was formed, Mr. Bancroft received new credentials to the Emperor of Germany, and when he was recalled, duly presented his letters of recall to the Emperor. At that time Mr. Bancroft reminded the State Department at Washington that his letters of appointment to the Kings of Bavaria and Wurtenberg were still in force and asked permission to present to them also formal letters of recall.

The State Department deemed this ceremony needless and so informed Mr. Bancroft, Upon the receipt of this notification, Mr. Bancroft communicated with the courts at Munich and Stuttgart, informing them why he was obliged to omit the customary duplomatic counters. The Enited States embassy here continues to be officially ignorant of the decision in Stern's case and it is rumored here that the Secretary of State at Washington asked the German ambassador there to use his influence in behalf of Stern and met with a positive refusal.

Odon, who was re-cently suspended from his chair in the Par-celona University for publishing a text book which the Hishop of Barcelona declared was heretical, which suspension led to riotous demonstrations on the part of the students, demonstrations on the part of the students, was expected to arrive here to-day.

Senor Salmeron, the Republican leader, and a crowd of his followers and students went to the railway station to welcome him, but they were disappointed, as the professor did not arrive.

The crowd vented their spleen in hissing the officials, but before the disorder became serious they were dispersed by the police.

BEAT A PATIENT TO DEATH. Two Hospital Attendants While Intoxicated Did the Horrible Deed.
Morristown, N. J., Oct. 13.—William Mack and Henry Convery, two attendants at the State hospital at Morris Plains, were arrested on Saturday and brought to the jail here for beating to death Nicholas Dolrus, an insanc patient at the hospital.

The coroner's jury exonerated Medical Director Evans and his assistants from all blame. The attendants, who had theretofore borne a good reputation, were intoxicated at the time they committed the deed.

Sheriff Houpt Will Not Permit It at Hot Springs.

Gov. Clarke Will Have Them Arrested If They Attempt to Enter the State of Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 13.-Sheriff Reb Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 13.—Sheriff Reb Houpt, of Hot Springs, arrived in this city late last night and went directly to Gov. Clarke's residence, where a long conference was held. The interview must have been satisfactory to Gov. Clarke, for to-day he remarked that he had implicit confidence in the willingness and about of Sheriff Houpt to render any assistance that may be pressary in the suppression of the Corbett.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 13,-Corbett spent all of to-day training. He began work at 9 o'clock-and quit at 5 o'clock. Several hundred people visited his quar-ters to see him, but only a few friends were lers to see him, but only a few friends were admitted to witness the exercises. He is in jovial spirits to-day, and states that he is in better trim for fighting than ever before in any of his contests.

Jim Corbett received a telegram early to-night from Manager Brady, who is at secured and that protection is guaranteed.

Hot Springs, telling him to leave for the latter place to morrow. The telegram further ststed training quarters had been settred and that protection is guaran-teed.

Corbett was seen by the United Press correspondent soon after receiving the telegram and asked if he intended obeying Brady's instructions to leave here for Hot Springs.

"Yes," said Corbett, "I and my party will leave here to morrow night. The announcement in the telegram that protection is guaranteed is a pleasant surprise to me. I so not know, however, whether it means that protection is guaranteed me while training or that there will be no interference at the fight. I certainly hope that the fight can be pulled off and that we will not meet with the trouble in Arkansas that we have had in Texas."

It is very evident that Corbett still doubts the ability of the Florida Athletic Club to bring off the fight at Hot Springs, notwithstanding the reassuring telegram from Brady.
